

WARRANTY INFORMATION

Yukon Fitness Equipment warrants its products against defects in materials and workmanship outlined herein. Welded structure, pulleys, and bushings are guaranteed for the life of the registered owner. After receiving a “return materials control number,” the customer is responsible for shipping the defective equipment to Yukon via prepaid freight for replacement or repair. Upholstery, grips, and cables are also warranted for life. This warranty covers only failures due to defects in materials and workmanship that occur during normal use. It does not cover damage that occurs in shipment or failures due to misuse, abuse, neglect, misapplication, alteration or improper assembly of the product. This warranty does not cover the use or failure of equipment in commercial or institutional applications.

Replacement or repair as provided for under this warranty is the sole remedy of the user. Yukon shall not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages or for breach of any express or implied warranty on this product.
